

Top 20 Tools EVERY MECHANIC SHOULD HAVE

Maybe sometimes you wonder how hard it is to take on some of the car maintenance yourself so that in turn, you keep more cash in your pocket.

1 SOCKET WRENCH TOOL SET

Useful for:

- Brake jobs
- Oil changes
- Battery changes
- Emergency repairs
- Changing the headlight assembly, etc.

2 WIRE CUTTERS, STRIPPERS, AND PLIERS

Useful for:

- Loosening screws
- Prying up clips
- Cutting thin metal (< 1.3 mm) and wires
- Cutting zip ties

3 TORQUE WRENCH

Useful for:

- Torquing tire lug nuts
- Brake replacements
- Suspension work
- Installing trailer hitches
- Motorcycles and boats as well

4 WRENCH SET

Useful for:

- Pulling out the driveline and the axles on the trucks
- Removing nuts and bolts or loosening them
- General garage use

TOP 20 TOOLS EVERY MECHANIC SHOULD HAVE

5

SCREWDRIVER SET

Useful for:

- General garage work
- Removing and inserting screws for various parts of the car
- Quick and easy jobs that involve screws

RUBBER MALLETT

6

Useful for:

- General car repairs
- Garage setup (metal shelves, other structures, etc.)
- Fitting together pieces without nails

7

WORK LIGHT

Useful for:

- Working in the evening or night
- Emergency repairs in low-light areas or corners that are hard to reach
- General garage work

8

LIQUID PENETRANT

Useful for:

- Cleaning paint, rust, and other residues
- Easing off nuts and bolts
- Removing car components, etc.

YOU ARE GOOD TO GO!

2

everything GARAGE REVIEWS

9 MULTI-METER

Useful for:

- Solve electrical issues
- Test car alternators and batteries
- Check the generator
- Reading AV voltage and continuity

10 IMPACT WRENCH

Useful for:

- Removing lug nuts and bolts
- Change snow and summer tires
- Suspension work

11 OIL DRIP PAN

Useful for:

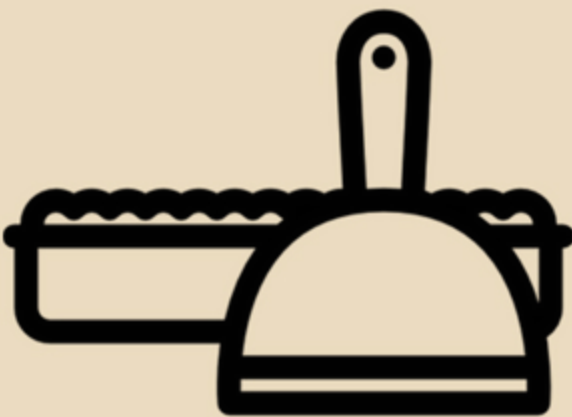

- Catching drips and leaks under the car
- Keeping the garage floor clean
- Keep your surroundings dry whenever you need to change or work with fluids

KITTY LITTER 12

Useful for:

- Absorbing the liquids that leak on the ground
- Avoiding future gasoline or other stains

YOU ARE GOOD TO GO!

TOP 20 TOOLS EVERY MECHANIC SHOULD HAVE

13 SPARK PLUG PLIERS

Useful for:

- Changing spark plugs
- Pulling wires and plug boots
- Working with hard-to-reach boots

FLOOR JACK 14

Useful for:

- Keeping the vehicle off the ground while you do your work
- Changing tires
- Working in places hard to reach
- Change motor mounts, etc.

15 PROTECTIVE GLOVES

Useful for:

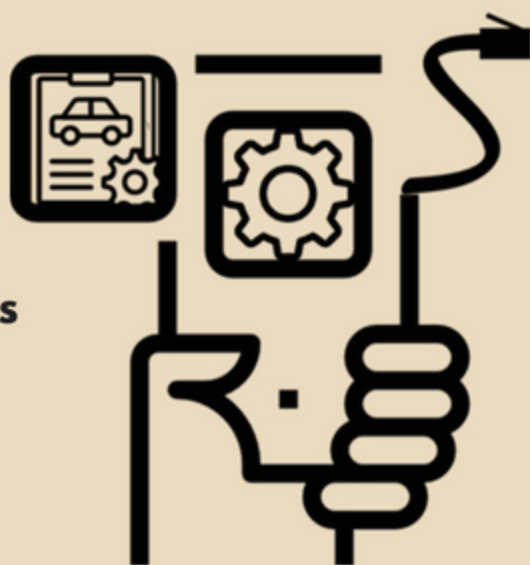

- Working with liquids and avoiding stains
- Doing electrical work
- Doing heavy work

16 OBD READER

Useful for:

- Identifying the problems your car has
- Reading and clearing error codes
- Learning more about the troubleshooting part

YOU ARE GOOD TO GO!

17 CAR SERVICE MANUAL

Useful for:

- Understanding more about the troubleshooting process
- Preventing other issues in the future

18 TAPE

Useful for:

Keeping together different parts
Isolating electrical wires
Protecting various surfaces from scratches and other damage, etc.

19 ZIP TIES

Useful for:

- Keeping wires together
- Identifying the right wires to work with
- Isolating groups of wires to protect them

20 CLEANERS AND LUBRICANTS

Useful for:

- Keeping metal parts clean for the best performance
- Maintaining a good design
- Keeping dirt at bay
- Seal off areas

YOU ARE GOOD TO GO!